

INTERTWINED...A Domestic Violence Certification Class

For teachers, counselors, preachers and Domestic Violence Ministries or providers.

Classes are forming now for “Intertwined” a program for domestic violence training providers in the faith based community. This class is for Ministers, ministry leaders, counselors. Domestic Violence volunteers and prevention specialist. Participants can become certified domestic violence trainers.

What you will learn: What is domestic violence, recognizing the signs in others, types of abuses, cycles of domestic violence, affects on children, safety planning, employment and domestic violence, the law on domestic violence.

Certification requires 40 hours of training Classes are offered in 4 or 8 hour sessions...$49 pp/4hr session.

Call to register you will be notified when the next class is scheduled 404-664-3705

Adjunct Instructors are Former Police Chief and DV Survivor and Advocate

